

Most people say, "Well, I've broken one or two, but nothing too serious, like murder, etc."

So let's go through three of them and see how you do...

Have you ever told a lie? Then you are a liar. How many murders do you have to commit to be a murderer? Just one. If you have told even one lie, that makes you a liar. The Bible warns that all liars will have their part in the Lake of Fire (Revelation 21:8). You may not think deceitfulness is a serious sin, but God does.

Have you ever stolen anything (even if it was something small)? The value of the thing stolen doesn't matter; petty theft is still theft. Have you ever taken anything that belonged to someone else (from the office, school, parents, etc.)? If you have, that makes you a thief.

Jesus warned, "You have heard... 'You shall not commit adultery.' But I say to you that whoever looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart," (Matthew 5:28).

Have you ever looked at another person with lust? The Bible says that adulterers and fornicators (those who have had sex before marriage) will not enter the kingdom of heaven (1 Corinthians 6:9).

James 2:10 For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all.

If you have answered yes to these three questions then by your own admission you are a liar, thief, and an adulterer at heart!

Will you be innocent or guilty on the Day of Judgment?

Will you go to Heaven or Hell?
