

If you think that was amazing, read the following words very carefully (right to the end), and you will see something incredible: God commands all men everywhere to repent, because he has appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness. Maybe you don't see your need to repent. Then answer these three questions with an honest heart: Have you ever told a lie? Have you ever stolen something? Jesus said, "Whoever looks upon a woman and lusts after her has committed adultery already with her in his heart." Have you ever done that? Will you be innocent or guilty on Judgment Day? If you are found to be guilty (and we are all guilty), according to the Bible you will end up in Hell. It's not God's will that you go there. He provided a way for you to be forgiven. He so loves you that He sent His Son to take your punishment: "God demonstrated His love toward us, in that, while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Then Jesus rose from the dead and defeated death. If you will repent (turn away from sin) and trust in Him, God will forgive you and grant you everlasting life. Isn't that amazing? Pray something like this now: "Dear God, I want to turn away from all of my sins. This day I put my trust in Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. Please forgive me, change my heart, and grant me your gift of everlasting life. Amen." Then read the Bible daily and obey what you read (see John 14:21).

If you think that was amazing, read the following words very carefully (right to the end), and you will see something incredible: God commands all men everywhere to repent, because he has appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness. Maybe you don't see your need to repent. Then answer these three questions with an honest heart: Have you ever told a lie? Have you ever stolen something? Jesus said, "Whoever looks upon a woman and lusts after her has committed adultery already with her in his heart." Have you ever done that? Will you be innocent or guilty on Judgment Day? If you are found to be guilty (and we are all guilty), according to the Bible you will end up in Hell. It's not God's will that you go there. He provided a way for you to be forgiven. He so loves you that He sent His Son to take your punishment: "God demonstrated His love toward us, in that, while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Then Jesus rose from the dead and defeated death. If you will repent (turn away from sin) and trust in Him, God will forgive you and grant you everlasting life. Isn't that amazing? Pray something like this now: "Dear God, I want to turn away from all of my sins. This day I put my trust in Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. Please forgive me, change my heart, and grant me your gift of everlasting life. Amen." Then read the Bible daily and obey what you read (see John 14:21).

If you think that was amazing, read the following words very carefully (right to the end), and you will see something incredible: God commands all men everywhere to repent, because he has appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness. Maybe you don't see your need to repent. Then answer these three questions with an honest heart: Have you ever told a lie? Have you ever stolen something? Jesus said, "Whoever looks upon a woman and lusts after her has committed adultery already with her in his heart." Have you ever done that? Will you be innocent or guilty on Judgment Day? If you are found to be guilty (and we are all guilty), according to the Bible you will end up in Hell. It's not God's will that you go there. He provided a way for you to be forgiven. He so loves you that He sent His Son to take your punishment: "God demonstrated His love toward us, in that, while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Then Jesus rose from the dead and defeated death. If you will repent (turn away from sin) and trust in Him, God will forgive you and grant you everlasting life. Isn't that amazing? Pray something like this now: "Dear God, I want to turn away from all of my sins. This day I put my trust in Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. Please forgive me, change my heart, and grant me your gift of everlasting life. Amen." Then read the Bible daily and obey what you read (see John 14:21).

If you think that was amazing, read the following words very carefully (right to the end), and you will see something incredible: God commands all men everywhere to repent, because he has appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness. Maybe you don't see your need to repent. Then answer these three questions with an honest heart: Have you ever told a lie? Have you ever stolen something? Jesus said, "Whoever looks upon a woman and lusts after her has committed adultery already with her in his heart." Have you ever done that? Will you be innocent or guilty on Judgment Day? If you are found to be guilty (and we are all guilty), according to the Bible you will end up in Hell. It's not God's will that you go there. He provided a way for you to be forgiven. He so loves you that He sent His Son to take your punishment: "God demonstrated His love toward us, in that, while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Then Jesus rose from the dead and defeated death. If you will repent (turn away from sin) and trust in Him, God will forgive you and grant you everlasting life. Isn't that amazing? Pray something like this now: "Dear God, I want to turn away from all of my sins. This day I put my trust in Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. Please forgive me, change my heart, and grant me your gift of everlasting life. Amen." Then read the Bible daily and obey what you read (see John 14:21).